

As a part of our celebration, the Old Courthouse Foundation has pledged $50,000 to the creation of Bicentennial Park. The grounds of the Old Courthouse will be transformed into a multi-use park, boasting large walking paths, outdoor electric and outdoor lighting. Bicentennial Park will be made available to the community and non-profit agencies to host downtown festivals, markets, fundraisers and other outdoor events against the backdrop of our region's iconic architectural jewel.

Conceptual Images courtesy of VPS Architecture

We ask you to be a part of this lasting Bicentennial landmark and pledge $1000 towards the creation of Bicentennial Park. As a donor, your name will be honored on a permanent display installed in the main hall of the Old Courthouse.

Please fill out the form below and return along with your check to Kristin Comer at the Vanderburgh County Commissioner's Office in the Civic Center. Checks must be written to The Old Courthouse Foundation. For more information on this project email info@vanderburghbicentennial.com

(Business or Individual Name)

Would like to support the Bicentennial Park project and pledge $1000

Contact Name _____

Address _____

City/State/Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

*Please return or send this form along with a $1000 check to Kristin Comer at the Vanderburgh County Commissioner's Office in the Evansville Civic Center Complex at 1 NW Martin L. King Jr. Blvd #305 Evansville IN 47708
Check must be written to The Old Courthouse Foundation*